

The Bahamas has strengthened its AML/CFT/CFP framework and has addressed the FATF's "Action Plan" and is fully committed to maintaining the highest AML/CFT/CFP standards in the global fight ...

Also, noting shipowner feedback that it is sometimes difficult to obtain the correct Bahamas merchant flag, these are also now available to purchase from the BMA.

Within 10 months after the publication of its CFATF MER, The Bahamas applied to the CFATF in May 2018 for technical compliance re-rating of 21 FATF Recommendations.

Rates and information on Bahamas Cruising Permits. Visiting boaters must clear Customs and Immigration at the nearest designated Port of Entry.

The Bahamas is fully committed to maintaining the highest AML/CFT/CFP standards in the global fight against financial crime. We are ready to accommodate a review by the FATF (virtual or in-person) to ...

In December 2022, The Bahamas attained technical compliance ratings of "Compliant and Largely Compliant" in 40 of the 40 FATF's Recommendations. The country became only the second ...

5.1. 5.1.1. the requirements for IGF advanced training if the seafarer has satisfied all the additional requirements specified in STCW Regulation V/3 9.1, 9.2 and 9.3. ... Application Process for the ...

Official copies of the legislation may be obtained from the Government's Publication Office.

However, it is feared that MSC--one of the key players in the transaction--may soon control both the Freeport Harbour Company (FHC) and Freeport Container Port (FCP). This has ...

On April 1st, 2026, the Bahamas government implemented revised regulations covering cruising permits, customs clearance, anchoring fees, and boating entry structures.

Web: <https://cgaroofing.co.za>