

"NFCC is proud to announce the successful landing of the East Micronesia Cable System (EMCS) submarine cable at its cable landing site in Yaren, Nauru," the Nauru Fibre Cable ...

The meeting focused on final preparations for the upcoming cable laying phase of the EMC project, which will deliver the first-ever submarine cable connections to the people of Tarawa ...

Digicel Nauru was privileged to attend the Ceremonial Buoy event last Saturday, 11th August, to officially mark the landing of the East Micronesian Cable on the shores of Nauru.

The Nauru Ministry of Information, Communications and Technology and the Nauru Fibre Cable Corporation celebrated a significant milestone in delivery of Nauru's first international ...

Nauru and Kiribati currently rely on satellites for the majority of their internet connections, according to Japan's Foreign Ministry. The planned undersea cable will give the more than 100,000 people on the ...

"Work to manufacture and lay the East Micronesia Cable is officially underway," according to a statement from the Office of the Spokesperson. The $95 million EMC project, which has been ...

The project began in 2022 and is scheduled for full completion in 2025, with final landing stations to be established in Pohnpei, Micronesia, and Yaren, Nauru, later this year.

The East Micronesia Cable landed in Nauru on 9 August, following a successful landing in July in Kiribati. The international telecommunications cable is now just months away from being ...

Cable landing stations will be constructed at landing points in each country to facilitate connection to the main cable. The project is a joint initiative of the Governments of the Federated States of Micronesia, ...

Web: <https://cgaroofing.co.za>