

Since November 2022, an influx of over 12,000 new asylum seekers have fled to Rwanda to escape conflict in eastern DRC, with over 1,000 asylees arriving in September 2023, putting further pressure ...

The Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations (FAO) has been an essential partner of the Rwandan government since 1985, working through the FAO Rwanda Country Programming ...

Rwanda joined the Coalition in July 2021 and submitted its commitment through the Ministry of Education in September 2021 around the following areas: Policy, Financing, Institutional framework, ...

Comprehensive Food Security and Vulnerability Assessment are: Between 2021 and 2024, food security in Rwanda improved, with 83 percent of households now food secure--meaning they can meet ...

Development Goals. The NFNP also recognises Rwanda ratification of the Convention on the Rights of the Child (CRC) and Convention for the Eradication of all forms of Discrimination against Women ...

This section provides the background for the National School Feeding Program (NSFP) of Rwanda, briefly describes the generic potential benefits of school ...

The programme is highly relevant to Rwanda's education, nutrition, and social protection priorities, and addresses critical gaps in policy coherence, district ...

It covers the 2013-2022 period and provides an independent assessment of the relevance and effectiveness of IFAD's strategies and operations in the country.

The Home-Grown School Feeding programme, implemented in Rwanda since June 2014 in selected districts with particularly high prevalence of stunting, has led to improved performance of students in ...

Guided by Rwanda's Vision 2050, WFP is strategically mobilizing its expertise, partnerships and community relationships to reduce food insecurity, strengthen food systems and end malnutrition, ...

Web: <https://cgaroofing.co.za>